

Position: Audio and Technical Support Engineer

Qualified applicants will:

1. Possess minimum of 5 years professional experience in sound system set-up that includes mixing a variety of musical ensembles and genres (rock, country, jazz, symphonic, etc...)
2. Be proficient in studio and live recording applications and digital editing (ProTools, Nuendo)
3. Application Package Requirements can be found at Audio Audition

To be considered for selection to attend the live audition at The USAF Academy Band on 8-9 February 2010, please provide:

1. Detailed resume focusing on breadth and knowledge of sound reinforcement and recording experience.
2. Three professional references with valid/current phone/e-mail/web contact information.
3. Compact disc recording illustrating various musical styles that includes examples of:
 - a. An unedited "live" performance.
 - b. An edited studio recording.
 - c. At least one track must feature vocals.
4. Military applicants will provide copies of their last 5 performance reports and a commander's recommendation letter.